The Fraternity and Sorority Council at UC Merced has officially voted to open the campus for expansion. There are currently three NPC groups, three NIC groups, and two NALFO groups on campus with chapters ranging in size from 20 to 93. Kappa Delta Chi Sorority, Inc. is the newest group to be added to campus, colonizing in Fall 2014.

In order to be eligible for expansion at the University of California, Merced, interested organizations must be inter/national fraternities and sororities. The University of California, Merced defines a “inter/national” fraternity or sorority in the following terms: the organization has a headquarters or office space and staff; has non-profit status with the Internal Revenue Service; has a Board of Directors with a regional structure component as well as governance documents; has proof of general commercial liability insurance policy with a minimum of one million dollars in coverage; and has a regional and national structure of meetings or conventions.

The University of California, Merced is a four-year public research institution, which enrolls 5884 students. UC Merced offers 21 different baccalaureate degrees in engineering, natural sciences, and social sciences, humanities, and arts in addition to Master’s and Ph.D. degrees in 12 program areas. The University has major plans for structural and enrollment growth in order to accommodate 10,000 students by the year 2020.
