FSL Report

- Congrats on recruitment!
- Any recruitment concerns, report to Hayley or EVPs to see what they can do better for spring recruitment
- EVP of Multiculturals and Frats need proposed Spring Recruitment dates by the end of the month.
- Earlier dates are set, the earlier they can have priority for rooms
- All new members are required to attend New Member Conference on Oct. 16th, and ifc they cannot attend they have to let Hayley know

- If any members are double affiliated let Hayley know to check to see if they have to go.

- New Bill was officially cast on September 13th → chapters are responsible for reporting a lot of information, Hayley is meeting with Greek Life coordinators to figure out the way to report everything.

- Campus recognition for Sorority/Fraternity requirement: # of actives/# of new members/ # of community service hours/ total amount of money raised/ recognition status/ all of the sanctioned events (events on CatLife)

-Work on Hazing Prevention Training/ Inclusivity Training → request from Hayley or look for workshops that fulfill

- Contacting Care Office for Hazing training in October

-Sending a link for orgs. To be able to view status and what they haven't completed yet.

-RCO Trainings still have to be done (80% chapter has to attend Hazing/Inclusivity)

Adjournment @7:47 pm
